

NEW YORK CITY MAYOR'S OFFICE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

COMMUNITY JUSTICE TRANSITION NETWORK RFP Addendum #2 | March 27, 2026 – EPIN 12826P0006

Any provisions of the above-referenced RFP that conflict with the changes below, shall be modified to conform to such changes. This addendum hereby supersedes the solicitation issued on 02/23/2026 and this Addendum #2 issued on March 27, 2026. The proposal deadline is extended to March 31, 2026. Otherwise, all other terms and conditions shall remain in effect.

Thank you to all the organizations and teams who are diligently working toward completion of their proposals to the Community Justice Transition Network RFP. Transition Services make up a vital part of the justice system service continuum, and MOCJ is proud to work with a committed community of providers and prospective vendors. We appreciate all of your robust engagement with the procurement process, and we look forward to reviewing your completed submissions.

Our goal, as always, is to procure the best city services for the best value. All submissions will receive careful consideration and close review. We encourage all potential vendors to submit their best proposals for each competition pool, and to respond as thoroughly as possible by the deadline of March 31st at 2pm. While the RFP question period has ended, MOCJ is committed to ensuring that all potential vendors have any technical support required to complete the submission, so please do not hesitate to reach out (mocjprocurements@mocj.nyc.gov) if there are any technical issues with PASSPORT prior to the deadline.

New York City is fortunate to have a dedicated and talented pool of service providers to work with, and we look forward to reviewing your final proposals
