

NYC Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice Arraignment Programs

The NYC Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice (MOCJ) funds court-based Alternative to Detention (ATD) and Alternative to Incarceration (ATI) programs at arraignment.

Supervised Release Program (SRP)

SRP is a court-ordered program that provides community-based supervision and voluntary support for individuals with pending cases in the NYC Criminal or NYC Supreme court.

- All participants released under supervision will be assigned a case manager or social worker.
- All charges are eligible for SRP.
- Cases ineligible for SRP are as follows:
 - Undocketed DATs
 - Parole Violations/ Probation violations
 - Any criminal case outside of the NYC jurisdiction

Tier & Supervision Level Matrix: All supervision levels receive an intake and needs assessment, voluntary service referrals, phone/text court date reminders, and criminal history checks before each court date. (All Tier 2 releases will complete cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT) or other therapeutic intervention check-ins.)

Tier 1	Level 1: One Phone Check-In per month Level 2: One Phone Check-In & One In-Person Check-In per month Level 3: One Phone Check-In & Two In-Person Check-Ins per month
Tier 2 (Enhanced)	Level 4: Two Phone Check-Ins & Two In-Person Check-Ins per month Level 5: One In-Person Check-In per week All Tier 2 At least 5 required contacts within the first month

Updated Noncompliance Notifications: The matrix below indicates when the provider will report noncompliance to the court and all court parties

Tier 1	Within 10 business days, unless court requests a 48-hour notification.
Tier 2	Within 5 business days, unless court requests a 48-hour notifications.
